Items not permitted

If you take any of the following items into an IB examination - even by mistake - you will be in breach of regulations and may not be eligible for a grade in the subject being examined.

If you do not understand these instructions, please contact your coordinator.

Electronic equipment

Note that this includes, but is not limited to, mobile phones/cellphones and any device that allows communication.

An approved calculator is permitted in certain examinations.

Wearable technology and all types of watches

Note that this includes, but is not limited to, smart watches, smart glasses, and wireless headphones.

Books or guides

Rough/scratch paper or notes

Refreshments

Water is permitted at the discretion of the coordinator.

Conduct of the examinations

Language acquisition listening comprehension examinations

You will have five minutes' reading time to review the content of the examination. No writing is allowed during this time.

Once the five minutes' reading time has concluded, you may write answers and notes at any time during the examination.

You may write notes in the spaces provided. Notes will not be marked.

Pauses are built in between each audio text.

You are only permitted to use wireless headphones if they are supplied by your school.

If the audio is played on an individual device, you are not permitted to interact with the device once the examination has started.

Once three beeps are heard, the examination has concluded, and you must stop writing.

Further to the information provided here, please ensure that you read the full instructions on the front page of each examination. If you would like any further information, please speak to your coordinator.

The conduct of examinations rules apply to these examinations and must be observed at all times.

Conduct of the examinations

Notice to candidates

The following instructions must be observed for all IB examinations. Failure to comply may result in no grade being awarded for the subject being examined.

If you do not understand these instructions, please contact your coordinator.

Arrive on time for your examination. You are not permitted to leave the examination within the first 60 minutes, or the last 15 minutes.

Do not communicate with other candidates in the examination room.

Do not bring any unauthorized materials to your desk.

Follow all invigilator instructions. Raise your hand if you require the invigilator's attention.

Do not take any examination material out of the examination room.

Ensure that you report any incidents of possible academic misconduct to your coordinator.

Do not discuss the content of the examination with any person outside of your school in the next 24 hours.
